

ASSISTANT INSTRUCTOR

If you like people, have a passion for scuba diving and want an extraordinary life—become a PADI Instructor. Teaching scuba diving allows you to share your love of the aquatic world with others while doing what you enjoy—being in, around, and under the water. PADI Open Water Scuba Instructors and PADI Assistant Instructors are the most sought-after dive professionals around the world because they've completed the program that sets the standard for training dive professionals. You earn a PADI Instructor rating through hard work and commitment, but you're rewarded with a job that lets you share incredible underwater adventures with others—transforming their lives for the better and enriching yours. Are you ready to join the ranks of the dedicated professionals who teach the world's most progressive and popular scuba diver education programs? Then Go Pro with an Instructor Development Course (IDC). The IDC is made up of two parts—the Assistant Instructor Course (AI) and the Open Water Scuba Program (OWSI) program.

Who should take this course?

- Be at least 18 years of age or older.
- Have a Divemaster certification
- Have been a certified diver for at least six months.
- Have 60 logged dives, including night, deep and navigation dives.

What will I learn?

- PADI Standards and Procedures for courses you can teach.
- Learning, instructions, and the PADI system.
- Risk management and diver safety.
- The Business of Diving and your role as an Instructor.
- Marketing diving and sales counseling.

What will I need?

- Basic scuba gear, including a dive computer.
- All PADI required course materials.

Notes: _____

_____

_____