

OPEN WATER SCUBA INSTRUCTOR

If you like people, have a passion for scuba diving and want an extraordinary life—become a PADI Instructor. Teaching scuba diving allows you to share your love of the aquatic world with others while doing what you enjoy—being in, around, and under the water. PADI Open Water Scuba Instructors and PADI Assistant Instructors are the most sought-after dive professionals around the world because they've completed the program that sets the standard for training dive professionals. You earn a PADI Instructor rating through hard work and commitment, but you're rewarded with a job that lets you share incredible underwater adventures with others—transforming their lives for the better and enriching yours.

Who should take this course?

- Be at least 18 years of age or older.
- Have a PADI Divemaster certification (or have a qualifying certification from another organization).
- Have been a certified diver for at least 6 months.
- Have 60 logged dives, including night, deep and navigation dives.

What will I learn?

- PADI Standards and Procedures for courses you can teach.
- Learning, instructions, and the PADI system.
- Risk management and diver safety.
- The Business of Diving and your role as an Instructor.
- Marketing diving and sales counseling.

What will I need?

- Basic scuba gear, including a dive computer.
- All PADI required course materials.

Notes: _____

